Email: clubsale@sspom.org SSPOM Sale Group on Facebook SSPOM voicemail: (317)767-5704

Please read these rules & guidelines thoroughly, as some items have changed. If you have questions, contact SSPOM Coordinator at email above. Read All Rules Before Signing Contract.

Financial Obligations: Each seller must submit a non-refundable eleven dollar ($11) registration fee. Checks will be mailed via CHASE Bank; consignors will not need an envelope. Please make sure your address is correct on your contract. The seller will then receive the tags and seller number for the sale.

SSPOM is a 501c3 non-profit organization and will retain a thirty percent (30%) donation of the seller's total sales. SSPOM plans to mail all checks within three weeks. We will post on our SSPOM Consignment Sale Group page via Facebook when we have mailed all checks.

Check amounts are final.

Sellers may pay by cash or a check made out to SSPOM for the registration fees. Contract and payment may be turned in during registration times or be mailed to SSPOM Attn: Community Sale, P.O. Box 186, Greenwood, IN 46142. If you are a new consignor, you must to go to The Greenwood Library for registration. You will then be assigned a seller # and pick up your tags. If you participated in the previous sale, your number will remain the same. Failure to participate in two consecutive sales will forfeit your number. Sellers are to provide their own safety pins, tape, hangers, etc.

Drop off Obligations: Please patiently wait in your car while dropping off; do not block traffic by parking vehicle any place other than the row in front of the door next to the curb. We will have volunteers directing traffic, please abide by their direction. Once your vehicle has been unloaded you will receive your laminated color coded seller number. The card will match a specific place your items have been taken to. Please park your vehicle, come in to the school, find your items and place them on the sales floor. SSPOM suggests that if you have a large number of boxes or tubs, bring extra people and a suitable cart or wagon labeled with your name to help unload your items onto the sales floor. When you are finished please come to the welcome table, sign in and return your laminated number and tubs (one designated for each area) for pickup. Volunteers will not be helping put items out until all the cars are unloaded. Cut off time for drop off is at 7:30. Items will not be allowed after that time. All items must be on the sales floor no later than 7:45. This is non-negotiable! Failure to help display your own items may result in those items not being sold. Please take your tubs and boxes home Friday evening if you want to keep them. All containers left become the property of SSPOM.

Time Obligations: Consignors are not obligated to work during the sale. However, if you work one shift on Saturday, your donation amount would decrease to twenty five percent (25%). If you work two shifts at the sale (one shift must be on Saturday), your donation amount would be twenty-five percent (25%) and you would be able to pre-shop Friday night. As a volunteer, you must check in and out at the volunteer table. Please wear a yellow shirt to work Saturday shifts. Please refer to the volunteer guideline sheet for more information.

Sale Guidelines: This is a SSPOM community service and fund raising event. Individual consignors own all merchandise offered for sale. SSPOM reserves the right to reject items deemed inappropriate for the sale. Rejected items will be removed from the sales floor and may be picked up by the seller after the sale. SSPOM will no longer be sorting stuffed animals for pick up on Saturday. All leftover stuffed animals will be donated at the end of the sale; excluding all battery powered animals or dolls. SSPOM is not responsible for lost or stolen items.

Examples of acceptable items for the sale: This is a sale for Children's items only. Children's clothing from preemie/newborn to size 18, children's toys, books, tapes, puzzles, strollers, furniture, feeding supplies, infant swings, other equipment, and maternity clothing. You may contact SSPOM if you are unsure if an item is acceptable. All items must be odor free and clean, free of stains, holes and in working order and have working batteries (if applicable). If an item is deemed unsellable it will be returned to you.

To check whether items have been recalled, sellers should contact the Consumer Product Safety Commission (CPSC) at www.cpsc.gov or 1-800-638-2772. Sellers must also review the safety guidelines from the Juvenile Products Manufacturers Association at www.jpma.org or (856) 439-0500.

Pick up Guidelines: Unsold items may be picked up between 4:00 pm and 4:45 pm or as soon as all unsold merchandise has been sorted. Items not picked up by 4:45 pm will be donated to a charity chosen by SSPOM. Due to the number of consignors that are not picking items up, there will be a 10% additional fee taken from your check if SSPOM is not notified by 4:30 pm of your choice to donate leftover items. You may contact the Sale coordinator by emailing rebeccaj@sspom.org or you may personal message our SSPOM Sale Group page Via Facebook. Each seller must check for the proper seller ID on each item they pick up and then check the lost & found and reject areas for additional items. Sellers must check in & out at the doors. You may choose to donate all of your unsold items to a charity chosen by SSPOM. See contract for signature. _____ (initial here)

Tagging Guidelines: Each seller must price, tag, and organize their items. The price marked on the tag is the final price and no bargaining is allowed. Please have clothing items on hangers, priced, and organized by size before drop off. Non-clothing items should be organized by category. Items may NOT be priced at the sale or during drop off. Items without a tag, price, or seller ID number cannot be sold.

Sellers must use SSPOM provided tags only. If you need additional tags, please come to The Greenwood Public Library during listed registration times to receive more. Complete the tag legibly with a permanent pen/marker. Do not alter the price of the item on the tag; replace tag with new one with corrected information. Altered tags will not be accepted at checkout since SSPOM is unaware of who altered tag. Items cannot be accepted if tags are not complete. If an item loses its tag or tag is incomplete, it will be placed in the "lost & found" area and will not be sold. Price items reasonably. A good guide is to choose prices that you would pay. Price your items in increments of $.25 only.

Tags must be visible for the shoppers and they must be attached and subsequently removed without damaging the item. Do not use straight pins, staples, or paper clips as they can harm people or fall off which will result in your items being rejected and not sold. When hanging, hang the item so the hanger curves to the left as the front of the garment is facing you. The most visible place to attach a tag is the upper right corner (when facing item) of each item. Use a safety pin or tagging gun made for garments (not a quilting gun) to attach the tag. The holes in the tag may be used with safety pins. Tagging guns should pierce the solid paper on the upper part of the tag. In all cases, attach the tag without damaging the item. Use the garment's tag or a seam if necessary. Please ask if you are unsure about these directions.

All clothing (excluding onesies, socks, etc.) must be on hangers. Hangers will not be returned to you. Small items, such as socks, may be safety pinned together or placed in a plastic bag with the tag attached. You can attach the tag with clear packing tape. Do NOT cover the end of the tag to be torn off at checkout.

Coordinating and matching clothing for multiple birth children: These items can be displayed together or on separate racks if desired. If you wish to sell them as a group only, bind them together with a rubber band and use one tag to describe what is included and quantity of items included. If you wish to sell coordinated outfits separately, tag each one individually and place them together (not rubber banded together) on the multiples rack. Depending on the amount of items we may not have a multiples rack.

If an item cannot be tagged with a safety pin, use clear packing tape and be certain the tag will remain secure and that the end to be torn off at checkout is accessible. Items with small pieces should be placed in a clear plastic bag. Items needing multiple bags must be secured together.

If there are multiple parts on a larger item which cannot be bagged or bound together, place a duplicate tag on each item and include a clear description of the set on each tag. Label the tags "1 of 3, 2 of 3", etc. Price only the first tag and write the words "set of #" on subsequent tags in the blank provided for the price.
